the public has ever been half as successful as the Purifier. Its wonderful success has induced many unprincipled persons to attempt the sale of worthless compounds, under the deceptive name of Sarsaparilla, or Extract of Sarsaparilla, in imitation of the Purifier. Be sure you get the right article. It REGULATES ALL the organs of the body, and PURIFIES THE BLOOD.

—Sour Stomach!

Co., Gibbeson Co., February 1, 1848.
& CO.—Gentlemen: I was, for many years, afflicted with a disease of the stomach, which caused me to suffer much pain, and rendered life almost a burden. I called on a physician, and was confined under his care for some time, but received no benefit. I was induced, as an experiment, to try your Sarsaparilla, which I did, and before I had used one bottle I found myself much relieved, and after using three bottles was entirely cured. I have since enjoyed good health, which has since been restored to many of my friends and neighbors, who were afflicted with the same complaint, by the use of your Sarsaparilla. Yours, with respect, T. S. WILCOX, Postmaster.

Postmaster of Alton.

MOUTH, UNCORRHŒA, &c

GENTLEMEN: I have used your SARSAPARILLA in my practice, and have found it a valuable remedy for the diseases for which it is recommended. Especially in Mercurial diseases, and in cases of Mercury in the bones, it is the most effectual remedy I have ever used. I have also used it in Scrofula, and in cases of Mercurial disease, and have found it a valuable remedy. Yours, respectfully, JAMES R. CHILTON, M. D.

From the Ed. of the Burlington (Vt.) Sentinel of May 17, 1850.—The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam of Comfrey Co. and Cherry, prepared by Reed & Cutler, of Boston, is one of the most popular medicines of the day. That it is worthy of the confidence reposed in it, we have had abundant evidence in our own family, and in the case of friends. Reed & Cutler also prepare a Blood & Liver Syrup, which we have used in our family, and can recommend as a valuable medicine. See their advertisement in another column.

Sewing by Machinery.

To Journeymen Tailors, Seamstresses, Employers, and all others interested in Sewing of any description.

SEVERAL attempts have been made to produce Machines for Sewing, but they were met with not many objections, and could be used to the advantage of SINGER & PHELPS' Patent Sewing Machine have stood the severest test, and are admired by Singer & Phelps, No. 34 Harvard Place, Boston, Mass., suffered to do public work a perfect machine will be constructed, and adapted to perform any kind of work from the stitching of a fine shirt-bosom to a sail, about as well as some dexterous hand of leather. The needle is straight and works perpendicularly, upon the table of the machine, affording room to handle, and the feed (upon a new) way,—and it stitches by regulated to any length, even to a hair's breadth.

The stitch made by this machine is one which will not rave or open, and the seam can only be taken apart by cutting every second thread. From 200 to 1,000 stitches, according to the fabric operated upon, may be taken per minute.

In order to bring this machine to perfection much labor and study have been expended, aided by the ingenuity and the subscribers now offer to the British Sewing Machine, feeling confident that it will correspond, upon trial, with the recommendations here given.

The profits arising from the use of one of these machines with each sewer will either one or two necessities from five to six dollars per day. The operation is not confined to the manufacture of clothing only, but may be applied to sewing every description of linen, cotton, woolen, and most kinds of leather.

This machine, with ordinary care, is warranted for a number of years, and it is so simple in its construction, and easily regulated and managed, that any person can, after a few trials, become perfectly master of its operations.

The price of one of these machines, which is worked by a treadle, and capable of sewing any ordinary linen, or all or woolen fabrics, is one hundred and twenty dollars each, complete with all appended parts for operation.

These machines are a beautiful and useful piece of mechanism, and they take up a little room that they are an ornament to any lady's sewing apartment.

☞An Agent, (with whom exclusive arrangements will be made) is wanted in every city and town in the United States.

Applications for Agencies, and all orders on business for machines, which will be carefully attended to, and all inquiries about the principles and its different uses will be promptly attended to by the subscriber. All letters must be post paid.

Whig and Courier.

John S. Sayward, Editor

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1851.

Washington Correspondence

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

Washington, Feb 24

It is now really and very nearly to a certainty that many very important matters will go by the board at this session for Congress—measures of a passage of which may have been secured by the exercise of a little more application and energy on the part of honorable members in the early part of the session. It is of no use to complain to the antiquity of which ship money rivalled by its truth. The history of Hunco bunco is to be attached to the pious papers of the Golden Calf are neither modest nor few—and their ability, patriotism and devotion to the welfare of the dear people would never be supported did they not annually proclaim it from the high places by the cannon. Can we then wonder at the scuffle only regretful that smart men enough are found willing, to sacrifice their own interests on to the interests of noble hearted constituencies for the exceedingly reasonable consideration of $8 per day including the mileage? Certainly not—Therefore let there be no mourning over the though Mr Sebastian da mantis may exercise the virtue of patience another year the postage bill be referred and hundreds of aged or sick claimants be compelled to gnaw the crust of penury still shall please the people servants to accord to them somewhat more substantial than a barren acknowledgment of the just one of their demands. But I trust more to Providence and patience to Congress than that does not appear to be of very little in the attempt. Mr Bradbury's famous resolution and his speeches thereon and they will have the satisfaction of knowing that although both the resolution and its mover were indecently assailed by whole battle axe—the time of Congress has been employed—in one way or the other.

On Friday last the House disposed of four of the most important measures to be passed before the close of the present session. The Military Academy Appropriation, Naval and Indian Appropriation bills which certainly proved it to have been a day of business so far as the branch of Congress is concerned. It is gratifying to the Senate however to remark, that they are obliged for the very nature of the business now destined to claim their attention to avoid the action of the House—that no bills appropriating money and which must constitutionally originate in that branch of Congress. The deficiency bill has also passed both Houses—one of the provisions of which goes to appropriate a material increase in the general force of the Post office with a view to the more prompt execution of the requirements of the Bounty Land law.

The engrossing topic of conversation here in the late negro riot in the city of Boston. This most unfortunate occurrence is eagerly seized upon by Southern Disunionists as conclusive evidence that the Fugitive Slave law cannot be executed in New England. How long will the agitation be excited or but manifest satisfaction do these fervid sons of their celebrated Congress long continue its—who has failed with the most to be the natural result of their intemperate conversation of the Northern mind upon the subject of the Compromise Resolutions. To observe the mob acts of a band of lawless negroes to be an index to the opinions and will of the citizens of Boston or any portion of the people of New England is equally unjust, to assert an opprobrious label upon their history, and characters is wanton assault upon the majesty of the laws is illegitimate result of the teachings of unprincipled demagogues who have for years perverted the liberties of our free country while in the very performance of their duty have insulted and degraded the streets of Boston with the blood of its citizens. I have no fear for the result. The people of New England were too early taught obedience to the laws to have forgotten so primal the resolves of '76 if called to require them as a high and loyal support, to be no way induced from their allegiance by these most struck demagogues who have at last unfurled the banner of treasonable resistance to the execution of the law. I choose to rest my convictions upon the well known character and acknowledged intelligence. The subsequent action of the local authorities when this disgraceful riot occurred. The language of the press—and most significant of all, the prompt arrest of the ringleaders engaged afford ample assurance that the career of these lawless miscreants will be brought to a sudden close. The tone of Mr Fillmore's proclamation shows that the administration is determined at all hazards to preserve the peace of the country. I do not discover the least cause for apprehension that a resort to force on the part will ever be necessary to maintain the supremacy of the law. The people on the spot are fully competent to the promotion of domestic peace, and will save the Federal Government the disagreeable necessity of illustrating the mighty power that slumbers in its arm when wielded in defence of the Constitution & the laws of the country.

To a want of vigilance energy and resolution on the part of the Deputy Marshal this result is manifestly to be attributed.

But by the telegraph we have the tidings of another riot which occurred in Springfield, Mass which produced an entirely different result upon the minds of those who have so warmly applauded the Boston outbreak. How time the tables were turned—your Bull gored my ox! The honorable Mr Thompson, member of the English Parliament who had consented to turn his back upon the tears and groans of his famishing countrymen, at home, to add to the perils by which our own peace and harmony were environed, had been assailed when about taking the cars. Now both these mobs are reprehensible—censurable because they were violations of the peace and dignity of the State—of which Mr T has no right to complain, however, for he has been advocating nothing else than forcible resistance to law, and he has simply experienced a practical application of his own nefarious doctrines—still both outbreaks are to be censured by every right minded person. It was interesting however to mark the sudden change—

From gay to grave from lightness to severe, with which the brows of those who had heard cessed shouting over the Boston demonstration ere they were called to mourn the high handed assault on the rights of an individual, this violation of the peace this gross violation of the law—mothers with children suddenly, almost startled the Springfield affair. Truly the difference.

Washington Correspondence

Between Boston and Springfield

It certainly would have been better had the people of Springfield simply treated the matter with contempt which he so richly deserved. Depending, the more we for other forms of De mocracy has become a relevant proverbial never to proceed to extremes. In support of Mr Rantoul the assertion of the Boston rights the few days before the present Congress certainly must have filled every patriotic of the strength of the elective franchise to the idea that all men of position and wealth would be always found on the side of law and order. The cause of human liberty may be safe and friends and profit and future ages will speak in terms of the highest praise of the noble daughters of the Bay State in sorrow to seek relief in God the fountain of goodness and truth.

THE Great American Remedy

FOR Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, has now been long before the public, and its reputation so well established, both from recommendations of Physicians, and from the invaluable testimony of its infallible virtues by all who have used it, that it has become immensely large, and (it must very truly be said) unprecedented the use of all or every other article issued for the same, and kindred complaints. As a family medicine, it can safely be outdone. In double the usual dose it almost invariably vanishes the child in the first stages of croup, and relieves and quiets it immediately. For quite a number of years it has been the favorite and universal remedy in all the exact named' of one of the most celebrated and skilful Physicians.
